- Miaoli Rail Museum - Miaoli Rail Museum showcases Taiwan's railway history through preserved locomotives, carriages, and interactive displays, helping visitors understand how trains connected cities, industries, and communities while offering nostalgic photo opportunities today.

YEHLIU GEOPARK

DAY 3
TAIPEI
(BREAKFAST, DINNER)

- Yehliu Geopark - Famous for unique rock formations shaped by sea erosion. Highlights include the iconic "Queen's Head," mushroom rocks, and stunning coastal scenery.

- Zhengbin Port Color Houses - A picturesque fishing village lined with brightly colored buildings. A favorite Instagram spot showcasing Keelung's coastal charm and lively harbor atmosphere.

- Shifen Old Street + Sky Lantern Release - immerse yourself in the charm of Shifen Old Street, a lively railway town where trains pass through a bustling market. Release a colorful sky lantern adorned with your wishes, a unique tradition symbolizing hope and good fortune. This magical experience, set against stunning mountain scenery, is a must visit for those seeking culture and unforgettable memories.

- Local Train Ride, Ruifang to Shifen - A nostalgic local railway journey passing through mountain towns and old tracks, offering a glimpse of Taiwan's traditional countryside life. *In the event if the train service is not available, will proceed to Shifen By Coach

- Jiufen Old Street - once a thriving gold mining hub called Golden Mountain City, Jiufen transformed into a must-visit destination after the film "A City of Sadness" showcased its beauty. Today, its stunning mountain and sea views, nostalgic architecture, and unique sloping landscapes draw visitors from around the globe.

DAY 4
TAIPEI
(BREAKFAST)

- Yangmingshan National Park - A volcanic national park with hot springs, flower fields, scenic viewpoints, and cool mountain weather - perfect for nature lovers and photographers.

- CKS Memorial Hall - Is a grand monument dedicated to the former President Chiang Kai-shek. The impressive structure features a large, iconic dome and is surrounded by expansive gardens, serving as a major cultural and historical landmark.

TAIPEI GRAND MOSQUE

Zhengbin Port Color Houses

- Taipei Grand Mosque - the most gigantic and oldest mosque in Taiwan. Built in 1960 with funds donated from Taiwan and Saudi Arabia. The main distinguishing feature of the mosque is its enormous domed roof. The dome is 15 meters high, 15 meters in diameter and is supported entirely without beams.

- Taipei 101 – Offers stunning 360-degree views of Taipei and beyond. Visitors can reach it via a high-speed elevator, and it features indoor and outdoor viewing areas. It's especially beautiful at night with the city lights. A must-see in Taipei! (Optional: 89th floor observatory deck)

XIMENDING

- Ximending - known as the Harajuku of Taipei or Shibuya of Taipei, is the source of Taiwanese fashion, subculture, and Japanese culture. Everyone can find what they need right here in Ximen Shopping District!

DAY 5
