DAY 1

SINGAPORE ✈ URUMQI

- Your vacation begins with a pleasant flight from Singapore to Xinjiang.

DAY 2

URUMQI

(LUNCH, DINNER)

- Urumqi – Capital of Xinjiang, is the world's most inland major city. Meaning "beautiful pasture" in Mongolian, it is home to 4 million people and 49 ethnic groups. Once a Silk Road stop, the city now blends modern life with rich culture, set against the stunning backdrop of the Tianshan Mountains and desert landscapes.

DAY 3

URUMQI - ALTAY

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- S21 Desert Highway – One of the world's longest desert highways, with a 343-kilometer road in Xinjiang, stretching across vast desert landscapes. Travelers are treated to endless sand dunes, arid plains, and dramatic skies, making it perfect for self-drive adventures, photography, and sunsets.
- Birch Forest Park – Famous as China's largest natural birch belt, the "Northwest's No. 1 Birch Forest" dazzles in autumn with golden leaves, white trunks, serene walking paths, and stunning river-and-mountain views.
- Altay – Known as China's "Snow Capital," is a northern Xinjiang prefecture famed for the Altai Mountains' stunning landscapes, rich mineral resources, and the unique Kazakh and Tuva cultures.

DAY 4

ALTAY - HEMU

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Ahe Highway – highly scenic 209 km mountain route, known as the "Most Beautiful Self-Driving Road in Northern Xinjiang." It links Altay City to the pristine Hemu Village in the Kanas Scenic Area.
- Hemu Scenic Area – is a remote "fairyland" valley known for its wooden cabins, pristine forests, snow-capped mountains, and the winding Hemu River. Home to Tuva and Kazakh communities, it's one of the three iconic villages in the Kanas region.

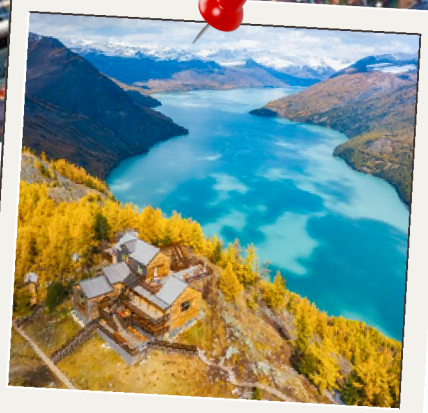

HEMU SCENIC AREA

- (Additional) Yunxiao Peak – Breathtaking summit (2,800 m) offering panoramic views of Hemu's alpine forests, rivers, and surrounding mountains.
- Hemu Cabin Stay – is a cozy, rustic accommodation option in Hemu Village, nestled in the Kanas region. The cabins offer visitors an immersive experience amid birch forests, rivers, and mountains, combining authentic village life.

HEMU CABIN STAY

KANAS SCENIC AREA

DAY 5

HEMU - BURQIN

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Kanas Scenic Area – Famous turquoise lake surrounded by China's most beautiful alpine lake! Surrounded by forests, meadows, and snow-capped peaks, this lake is legendary for its ever-changing colors and the mysterious "Kanas Lake Monster" myth!
- (Additional) Tuvan Family Visit – Experience traditional Tuva hospitality, music, cuisine, and cultural practices, gaining deep insight into local life.
- Burqin – A picturesque border county at the meeting of the Burqin and Irtysh rivers, Burqin is the main gateway to Kanas and Hemu. It blends Central Asian, Russian, and Kazakh influences, with highlights like Hemu Village, Rainbow Beach, the lively night market, and the Irtysh River—China's only river flowing to the Arctic Ocean.

TUVAN FAMILY VISIT

WUCAITAN / FIVE-COLORED BEACH

DAY 6

BURQIN - KUITUN

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Wucaitan / Five-Colored Beach – is a famous scenic area in northern Xinjiang known for its colorful, layered rock formations created by wind erosion over thousands of years. The landscape looks like waves of red, yellow, purple, green, and brown stone, especially beautiful at sunset when the colors become even richer.
- Wuerhe World Devil City – It is a typical Yardang landform. Due to wind erosion over the years, it has formed a group of bizarre rock formations that look like an abandoned ancient city from a distance. At night, the howling wind sounds like the whispers of demons, hence the name "Devil City".

LAVENDER GARDEN

DAY 7

KUITUN - YINING

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Liuxing Street – Bustling commercial street lined with local snacks, shops, and cultural elements showcasing western Xinjiang lifestyle.

LIUXING STREET

- Lavender Garden – part of a region widely considered "the lavender capital of China." The area is ideal for lavender and flower cultivation which explains why it has become the largest and densest lavender-planting base in China.

DAY 8

YINING - TEKES

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Nalati Sky Grassland – One of the world's major alpine grasslands, its Mongolian name meaning "where the sun is first seen", comes from a legend from Genghis Khan's westward expedition.
- Tekes Bagua City – World's largest city designed and built according to the principles of the ancient Bagua (Eight Trigrams) from the I Ching (Book of Changes). This radial, circular layout has made it famous as a "city without traffic lights".
- Tekes County – a region of stunning natural beauty in the Tianshan Mountains area and a significant center for the ancient Wusun culture.

ZHAOSU GRASSLAND

DAY 9

TEKES - YINING

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Zhaosu Grassland – A UNESCO-listed alpine meadow famed for wildflowers, rolling hills, dense forests, and traditional Kazakh pastures, offering some of Xinjiang's most breathtaking natural landscapes and nomadic cultural experiences.

- (Additional) Roasted Whole Lamb Banquet – Traditional yurt feast with the Opening of the Lamb Ceremony, accompanied by song, dance, and festive local celebration.

ROASTED WHOLE LAMB BANQUET

DAY 10

YINING - KUITUN

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Sailimu Lake (Sariyam Lake) – A high-altitude alpine lake known for turquoise waters, stunning sunrises and sunsets, and surrounding green pastures. Nicknamed "the last tear of the Atlantic," it offers scenic drives, yurts, and horseback riding.

DAY 11

KUITUN - URUMQI

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH)

- Tianshan Tianchi (Heavenly Lake) – A UNESCO site in Xinjiang, it sits 1,907m up on Bogda Peak, featuring a crescent-shaped alpine lake surrounded by snow-capped mountains and spruce forests.

- Xinjiang International Grand Bazaar – It is an Islamic bazaar in Ürümqi, Xinjiang Province, China, showcasing Islamic architectural styles while combining ethnic trade, tourism, food, and entertainment. The buildings and interiors reflect Xinjiang's diverse minority cultures, including Uyghur, Kazakh, and Hui traditions.

XINJIANG INTERNATIONAL GRAND BAZAAR

DAY 12

URUMQI

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Dabancheng Wind Power Station – The Dabancheng Wind Power Station near Urumqi is one of Asia's largest wind farms, with endless rows of turbines along the Urumqi–Turpan route. Its massive scale makes it both a key renewable-energy landmark and a striking roadside attraction, especially beautiful at sunrise and sunset.

- Uyghur Family Visit – Experience traditional Uyghur hospitality, music, food, and home culture firsthand.

KAREZ WELL

- Karez Well – The Karez well system in Xinjiang is an ancient, still-functioning underground irrigation network considered one of China's great engineering marvels, alongside the Great Wall and the Grand Canal.

- Jiaohe Ancient City – A UNESCO World Heritage Site, it is the world's largest and best-preserved raw-earth ancient city, offering a rare glimpse into Silk Road civilisation.

- (Additional) Back To The Silk Road – a large-scale indoor national singing and dancing performance. It is divided into four parts, based on the splendid culture and historical allusions of the Western Regions, it integrates multi-ethnic singing and dancing, acrobatics, Synchronized Swimming, ice ballet and other performance.
