DAY 2

CAIRO

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Citadel of Salah El Din and Mohamed Ali Mosque – Perched atop Mokattam Hill, this fortress offers sweeping views of Cairo. The mosque's towering minarets and grand Ottoman domes represent Egypt's rich Islamic architecture and military history.
- Mosque of Amr ibn al-As - first mosque in Africa, built in 641–642 CE by Amr ibn al-As. Though rebuilt many times, it remains a key symbol of Islam's arrival in Egypt.
- Coptic Quarter - one of the oldest parts of the city, known for its ancient churches, monasteries, and Roman ruins. It serves as the center of Egypt's Christian heritage and is home to landmarks like the Hanging Church and the Coptic Museum.
- Ibn Tulun Mosque - built in the 9th century by Ahmad ibn Tulun. It is one of Egypt's oldest and largest mosques, known for its unique spiral minaret and simple yet elegant architecture inspired by Iraqi designs.
- Gayer Anderson - housed in two historic 16th–17th century houses beside the Ibn Tulun Mosque. It was home to Major Gayer-Anderson, a British officer and collector, who filled it with Islamic, Egyptian, and Oriental art and furniture, creating a museum of traditional life and culture.
- Al Azhar Mosque - Founded in 970 AD, Al Azhar is one of the oldest universities in the world and a leading center of Islamic learning. Its architecture blends spiritual grandeur with scholarly legacy.

DAY 3

CAIRO

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Great Pyramids of Giza - One of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, also the last are perhaps the most famous and discussed structures in history. The three primary pyramids on the Giza plateau were built over the span of three generations by the rulers Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure
- Great Sphinx of Giza - is a sculpture of a man with the body of a lion. It was called a "Sphinx" by the ancient Greeks, as it resembled the ancient Greek mythical winged monster. To the Arabs, it was known as Abu Al-Hol (which translates to "Father of Terror")
- Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM) - The largest museum in Egypt, located near the Giza Pyramids. It showcases thousands of ancient artifacts, including the complete collection of Tutankhamun, in a stunning modern architectural space.
- Perfume Factory & Papyrus Institute – Discover ancient Egyptian craftsmanship through scents and handmade paper.

DAY 4

CAIRO - ALEXANDRIA - CAIRO

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Makam Nabi Daniel – A sacred tomb shrouded in legend and spiritual reverence, believed by many to hold the remains of Prophet Daniel.

Nile Cruise

- Mosques of Abu Al-Abbas & Imam Busiri – These architecturally stunning mosques are centers of Sufi tradition and spirituality, nestled beside Alexandria's corniche.
- Fort Qaitbay – Built by Sultan Qaitbay on the site of the ancient Lighthouse of Alexandria, this sea fortress offers stunning coastal views and deep maritime history.

Luxor Temple

DAY 5

CAIRO - LUXOR (NILE CRUISE)

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Karnak Temple - a city of temples built over 2,000 years and dedicated to the Theban triad of Amun, Mut, and Khonsu. This derelict place is still capable of overshadowing many wonders of the modern world and in its day must have been awe-inspiring.
- Luxor Temple - The temple of Luxor is one of the best-preserved of all the ancient monuments containing large amounts of structure, statuary and relief carvings that are still intact to this day, making it one of the most impressive places to visit in the Luxor area and all of Egypt.

THE TEMPLE OF QUEEN HATSHEPSUT

DAY 6

LUXOR - EDFU (NILE CRUISE)

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Hot Air Balloon (Optional)
- Valley of the Kings - The most famed collection of such elaborate tombs, it lies on the Nile's west bank near Luxor. the valley was a royal burial ground for the queens, high priests, and other elites of the 18th, 19th, and 20th dynasties during Egypt's New Kingdom (1539-1075 B.C.).

COLOSSI OF MEMNON

- The Temple of Queen Hatshepsut - Queen Hatshepsut became one of the greatest female Pharaoh that ever lived. The daughter of Thutmose I, she married her half-brother Thutmose II, becoming the Queen of Egypt. When her husband died, she controversially maintained her rule. The Temple, partly rock-cut and partly freestanding, dramatically rises out of the desert plain. It's easy to see why it's one of Egypt's most photographed monuments.
- Colossi of Memnon - The Colossi of Memnon are two enormous statues of 18th Dynasty Pharaoh Amenhotep III originally designed to guard his mortuary temple, These two faceless colossi are the first thing visitors see when they reach the west bank of the Nile opposite Luxor.
- Alabaster Factory - showcases the traditional craft of carving alabaster stone. Visitors can watch artisans handcraft vases, statues, and souvenirs using ancient techniques passed down through generations.

DAY 7

EDFU - ASWAN (NILE CRUISE)

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Edfu Temple by Horse Carriage - Built during the Ptolemaic Kingdom between 237 and 57 BC, the Temple of Horus at Edfu is generally regarded to be the best-preserved of the Ancient Egyptian sanctuaries. For 200 years, the structure was buried under almost 40 feet (12 meters) of desert sand and silt from the Nile, which incredibly helped to conserve it to near perfection!
- Kom Ombo Temple - one of the most unusual place in Ancient Egypt, Kom Ombo was mainly built during the Ptolemaic Dynasty from 180 - 47 BCE, although there is evidence that it is stood upon an earlier temple, the temple is unique for its dedication to two different deities: the local crocodile-headed god Sobek, and the first "god of the Kingdom".

MOSQUES OF ABU AL-ABBAS & IMAM BUSIRI

DAY 8

ASWAN (NILE CRUISE)

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Abu Simbel – Abu Simbel is a historic site in southern Egypt comprising two rock-cut temples built by Pharaoh Ramesses II in the 13th century BC. The site is famous for its imposing statues, particularly the four colossal figures of Ramesses II guarding the entrance to the larger temple.

- Felucca Ride - a traditional sailing experience on the Nile River in Egypt. Travelers glide on wooden sailboats, enjoying peaceful views of the water, cityscapes, and sunsets, offering a classic way to experience Egyptian life along the Nile.

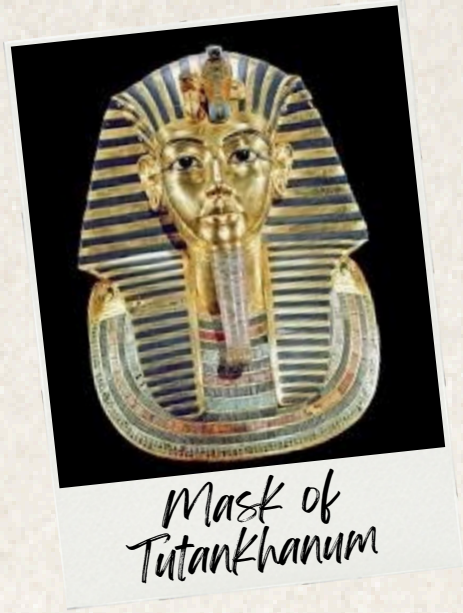

DAY 9

ASWAN - CAIRO

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

- Nubian Village (Additional) - Nubian villages in Aswan, Egypt are vibrant communities characterized by their unique architecture, colorful houses, and the distinct Nubian culture
- Unfinished Obelisk - Abandoned thousands of years ago the Unfinished Obelisk is one of the most important archaeological finds in Egypt for the insight it has provided into ancient stonemasonry methods.
- Philae Temple - Set on an island and dedicated to the goddess Isis, this beautiful Greco-Roman temple complex was relocated in an ambitious UNESCO project. Its detailed reliefs and serene location make it one of the most atmospheric sacred sites in Egypt.
- High Dam - Aswan High Dam is one of the world's largest embankment dams. It measures 550km in length and 35km in width, with its surface area of 5,250 square kilometers, the dam was constructed with the aim of regulating the flow of the River Nile, which serves as a lifeline to almost all of Egypt.
