DAY 2
TOKYO
(LUNCH, DINNER)

- Nezu Shrine - a historic Shinto shrine known for its beautiful azalea garden and well-preserved Edo-period architecture. It's a popular spot for its vibrant azalea festival in the spring and its "Senbon Torii" (thousands of torii gates), reminiscent of Fushimi Inari in Kyoto.

- Ginza - .a premier shopping and entertainment district in Tokyo, renowned for its luxury boutiques, department stores, high-end restaurants, and vibrant nightlife

- Nakamise Street – is one of the most famous shopping streets in Asakusa. The street runs for 250 meters and has shops selling traditional souvenirs, snacks, and sweets lined on both sides.

- Tokyo Skytree (Photostop at Sumida Riverside) - one of the most famous landmarks in Tokyo, the Tokyo Skytree is the tallest structure of its kind in Japan.

DAY 3
TOKYO - FUJI
(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Saiko Iyashi-No-Sato Nenba - This Edo-period village near Lake Saiko features thatched-roof houses turned into craft shops and galleries. Enjoy scenic Mount Fuji views, which offer a true taste of rural Japanese culture.

- Japanese Traditional Costume 'Kimono' Wearing Experience.

- Fuji Shibazakura Festival - an annual event held near Lake Motosu at the foot of Mount Fuji, showcasing a stunning carpet of over 800,000 shibazakura (moss phlox) flowers. The festival typically runs from mid-April to late May, with the peak bloom usually occurring from late April to early May. Visitors can enjoy the vibrant pink, white, and purple flowers, along with picturesque views of Mount Fuji.

DAY 4
FUJI - SHIZUOKA - KANAGAWA
(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Izu Shaboten Zoo - a unique blend of botanical garden and zoo, featuring around 1,500 varieties of cacti and succulents alongside 140 animal species. Visitors can explore diverse greenhouses, enjoy close encounters with animals like capybaras.

- Mt Omuro + Chair Lift - a distinctive, 580-meter-tall dormant volcano located on the Izu Peninsula in Shizuoka Prefecture, Japan. It's known for its perfectly conical shape, resembling an inverted rice bowl, and is a designated natural monument and a UNESCO Geopark. Visitors can enjoy panoramic views from the summit and participate in activities like archery within the crater.
