DAY 1

SINGAPORE - DANANG

(MEALS ON BOARD, DINNER)

- Your vacation begins with a pleasant flight from Singapore to Danang, Vietnam.
- Son Tra Mountain - A stunning natural mountain reserve often called the “green lung” of Da Nang, renowned for its pristine beaches, dense tropical forests, and rich biodiversity, including the rare red-shanked douc langur.
- Dragon Bridge - A 666-meter steel marvel that breathes fire and prays water every weekend, comes alive every night.
- Han River Cruise - Glide along on a sunset sail to witness the dragon’s fiery spectacle reflected on the water.
- Sontra Night Market - A lively spot in Da Nang offering local street food, souvenirs, and entertainment.

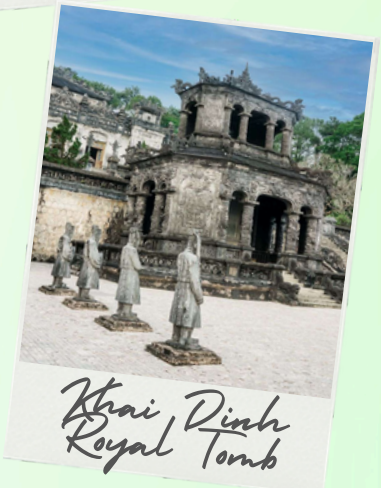

DAY 2

DANANG - BANA HILL - DANANG

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Transfer to Bana Hill.
- Le Jardin D’amour - Known as the paradise of flowers, located right in the middle of Bana Hills.
- French Villas - A collection of elegant, European-style buildings inspired by 19th-century French architecture. Surrounded by misty mountains and lush gardens, these villas evoke the charm of an old French village, offering visitors a romantic and tranquil retreat high above the clouds.
- Nui Cha & Mountain Peak - The highest point of Ba Na Hills, standing about 1,487 meters above sea level. From this peak, visitors can enjoy breathtaking panoramic views of Da Nang and the surrounding mountains. It’s a serene and majestic spot, often shrouded in mist, symbolizing the natural beauty and tranquility of Ba Na Hills.
- Golden Bridge- An architectural marvel renowned for its stunning design featuring two colossal stone hands that appear to lift the golden walkway high above the misty mountains.
- Han Market - Oldest and most famous markets, located in the city center near the Han River. It’s a bustling spot where locals and tourists shop for fresh produce, seafood, clothes, souvenirs, and local specialties. Known for its lively atmosphere and affordable prices, Han Market offers an authentic glimpse into Da Nang’s daily life and vibrant culture.

Marble Mountain

Thanh Ha Pottery Village

DAY 3

DANANG - HUE - DANANG

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Hue Imperial Citadel - A vast and majestic complex of palaces, temples, and walls that served as the administrative center and royal residence of the Nguyen Dynasty, offering a profound glimpse into Vietnam's last royal court.
- Khai Dinh Royal Tomb - Presents a striking blend of Vietnamese and European architectural styles, known for its concrete construction and incredibly detailed, ornate interior mosaics.
- Thuy Xuan Incense Village - Allows you to walk through a vibrant alley of colorful drying incense sticks and observe traditional craft of incense-making, creating a beautiful and sensory-rich memory.

DAY 4

HOI AN

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Marble Mountain - A stunning cluster of five limestones and marble hills located just south of Da Nang, each named after one of the five fundamental elements: Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth. This spiritual destination is famed for its intricate network of natural caves, which house ancient Buddhist and Hindu sanctuaries, alongside pagodas and panoramic viewpoints overlooking coastlines.
- Thanh Ha Pottery Village - Over 500 years old, is famous for its handmade ceramics and preserved traditional techniques. Visitors can watch artisans at work, try pottery making, and explore the Terracotta Park's creative clay art.
- Cam Thanh Village (Basket Boats) - The charming location is often compared to the famous Mekong delta, but here you'll ride adorable basket boats instead of the usual three-plank wooden vessels.

DAY 5

HOI AN

(BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER)

- Coffee Workshop - This engaging workshop in hoi An offers a deep dive into Vietnam's rich coffee culture by teaching you how to craft five distinct and traditional Vietnamese coffee styles.
- Hoi An Ancient Town - A UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its well-preserved mix of French, Chinese, and Japanese architecture. With lantern-lit streets, historic houses, and riverside charm, it offers a timeless glimpse into Vietnam's trading past.
