- Mushroom Tribe - Visit a specialized mushroom farm to see how different varieties are cultivated. Participate in hands-on activities like mushroom harvesting and enjoy a unique lunch featuring mushroom-inspired dishes.
- Sector Railway Garage - Explore the historic garage, learn about the history of Taiwan's railways, and admire the vintage locomotives and railway equipment.
- Intertidal Ecological Tour (Clams Digging Experience + Ox Cart & Retro Tricycle Riding + Grilled Oyster Tasting) - offers a unique and immersive experience for nature lovers. Explore the fascinating world of intertidal ecosystems as you dig for clams, ride an ox cart and a retro tricycle, and savor the delicious taste of grilled oysters.

DAY 3

TAICHUNG – NANTOU – TAICHUNG

(BREAKFAST, DINNER)

- Sun Moon Lake with Boat ride - Drift across Taiwan's largest freshwater lake, known for its picturesque views and cultural significance. Spot landmarks like Lalu Island and Ci En Pagoda from the water..
- Formosan Aboriginal Culture Village (Lunch Own Expenses) - Experience Taiwan's indigenous heritage at this cultural and amusement park. Explore traditional tribal houses, witness vibrant dance performances, and enjoy thrilling rides, all set against the scenic backdrop of Sun Moon Lake.

- Gaomei Wetland - over 300 hectares divided into 7 categories, which results in diversified organisms in this area. Gaomei Wetlands is one of the few places that have wild ducks. Despite the small area, Gaomei Wetlands have unique soils mixed with mud and sand. Ecology here breeds diversified organisms of both plants and animals. Research shows that animals here include birds, fishes, crabs and invertebrates.

- Fengjia Night Market - Taiwan's largest night market offers a vibrant mix of local street food, trendy shops, and fun games. Don't miss must-try treats like bubble tea, stinky tofu, and grilled squid.
